Discussion and break

* Zagreb Forum is organized for the second year by Croatian Association for International Studies, that encompasses a think tank: Centre for International Studies, thus gathers experts in international relations to share their views on contemporary security challenges. Zagreb Forum is being held under the auspices of the City of Zagreb, in the form of the international scientific conference, and it intends to point to the importance of reaching the stability in the South Eastern Europe.

Organizers of Zagreb Forum, together with the partners: Libertas University in Zagreb and International Institute for Peace from Vienna, stress the role of Croatia in the region, while discussing possible solutions and strengthening dialogue.
